PRESS QUOTES

“ Kolassa has nothing to worry about: he's both a musician and songwriter and good at it, too!

LIVING BLUES

“ Just flat out fun stuff that sneaks up on you and never fails to keep its mojo working.

MIDWEST RECORDS

“ ...this cat is a self-compiled encyclopedia of the blues with the chops to back up putting himself out there front and center

CHRIS SPECTOR

“ Mick Kolassa is, without question, one of the finest songwriters in the business. He is also a fine guitarist, with a voice that suggest years of marinating his vocal cords in bourbon and fine cigars.

REFLECTIONS IN BLUE

“ Michississippi Mick Kolassa is one of the performers that I had always heard OF more than I had heard. I decided to remedy that shortcoming...and I'm glad I did! His singing voice is well-suited to Blues, and he often delivers a song with "a wink in his voice".

GEORGE WILLETT

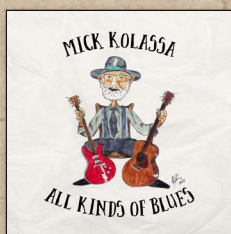

Mick loves and celebrates all styles of blues, and also loves to find the blues hidden in songs of other genres, "bluesifying" songs and doing what he calls "uncovers". Mick can offer 4 different "flavors" of blues to an audience:

- His solo acoustic shows feature Delta and Piedmont blues, as well as some surprise folk blues tunes
- With his Endless Blues Band Mick delivers modern Mississippi, Memphis and Chicago Blues, with a taste of Rock
- For a different feel, Mick teams up with Memphis guitarist Mario Monterosso to deliver classic "old school" blues with a jazz influence in the styles of T-Bone Walker, Louis Jordan and Lowell Fulson
- Mick also delivers a soulful blues show flavored with a bit of rock when he teams up with Dexter Allen

Regardless of the venue and configuration, Mick delivers lively and animated performances, assuring that the fans enjoy themselves as they listen to him playing his ©FreeFree-Range Blues.
